Re: Ruiz v. ELH Mgmt. LLC, et al.
SDNY Case No.: 1:23-cv-05367

Dear Judge Clarke,

Request GRANTED, parties shall have until October 18, 2023 to file a joint letter and case management plan. The undersigned has been referred for General Pretial, and parties are directed to address future correspondence on scheduling, discovery, non-dispositive pretrial motions, and settelment matters to the undersigned.

SO ORDERED:

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Katharine H. Parker".

HON. KATHARINE H. PARKER
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE 10/13/2023

This office, along with Bashian & Papantoniou, P.C., represent the Plaintiff, Luis Ruiz, in the above-captioned matter. The parties' joint letter and case management plan are due today to be filed. Our office reached out to Defendants' counsel and was unable to get in touch with her today to complete the joint letter and the case management plan. We received an automatic reply email that indicated counsel would be traveling between October 11 and 13, 2023, and would be delayed in responding. At the time of this filing, we still have not heard back. As such, Plaintiffs request an additional 3 days to complete and file the joint letter and case management plan so that both parties are able to provide input prior to filing.

We thank the Court for your time and consideration in this matter.

Respectfully Submitted,

Law Offices of Nolan Klein, P.A.
